Company Description: Johnson & Johnson family of companies, founded in 1886, is the world's most comprehensive and broadly based manufacturer of health care products. Our fundamental objective is to improve the quality of life of people all around the world, by providing scientifically sound and high quality health care products and services. With sales of $61.6 billion, we have over 250 operating companies in 57 countries employing approximately 115,000 employees. The company conducts business in virtually all countries worldwide with the primary focus on products related to human health and well-being.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

The Intern International Recruitment Development Program (IRDP) seeks qualified 1st year Masters/MBA candidates for internship positions within our Johnson & Johnson operating companies, in the Consumer, Pharmaceutical, and Medical Devices & Diagnostics business segments. International internship assignments are non-rotational, typically 10-12 weeks and are located in the regions and countries listed below. This formal and structured professional practicum may include pre-assigned projects and other departmental responsibilities in Marketing, Key Account Management, Finance, Logistics, Human Resources, Information Management or Business Development. Interns report to management supervisors and have opportunities to present key project findings and recommendations to business leaders. These and many other program features are collectively designed to provide a great Experience, Exposure, Environment and Education that challenges and develops MBA students personally and professionally.

The IRDP also encourages interns to consider full-time employment opportunities with Johnson & Johnson via the International Recruitment and Development Program.

ELIGIBILITY: Candidates must 1) be enrolled in either a MBA, master-level HR or master-level management accredited degree program, 2) have language fluency of the country where the internship assignment is located, and 3) be legally authorized to work permanently (i.e. without time limitations, without restrictions or without need for work sponsorship) in the country where the internship assignment is located.
